POPULATION HITS 30,508

Daly City's population is 30,508, according to results of a special census presented to City Manager Howard Stites Wednesday by J.
Herbert Bamford, special U.S. bureau of census supervisor.

The figure amounts to an increase of 6557 persons over 1954's population, which was revealed at 23,951 after a special census.

It also showed Daly City's phenomenal growth in the past five years at an even 100 per cent. The 1950 census showed Daly City's population at slightly more than 15,000. In the past 10 years Daly City's population has tripled, as in 1946 there were 9640 persons living here.

New Revenue

The 6557 new residents reported in the coming fiscal year, estimated the population conservatively at 28,500, so the council will have a windfall of about $11,000 to help meet mounting governmental expenses. Stites' earlier estimation of the population was 30,500, only eight off the actual count.

The manager said, however, that many persons still may not have been counted. Anyone not enumerated in the special census will be added to the total figure if they contact Stites within ten days.

Results of the census will be sent to Washington, D.C., for confirmation, and the tabulation should be returned to Daly City in about three weeks, Stites estimated.

Send To State

Census information will then be forwarded to the state so that Daly City's share of motor vehicle in lieu, gas and alcoholic beverage taxes may be computed under the new figures. Stites said he hoped to have the information to the state in early July so that Daly City would start receiving the first quarter of the fiscal year.

The special census cost Daly City $4100.

At 30,508 Daly City remains the fourth largest city in San Mateo county, behind San Mateo, Redwood City and South San Francisco.

City Employees Ask Blanket Pay Hike

Proposal asking from "five to 10 per cent" in pay increases was presented to the personnel board by Daly City Employees association last week.

The employees also asked a two-step increase for each worker.
The personnel board made no recommendation on the proposal, and will study the employees requests further at a special meeting next Tuesday.

'Small' Hike In Tax Rate Seen By City

In a three-hour session Monday, the city council managed to pare only $2750 off a $1,229,414 city budget, and announced that still another $64,250 would have to be eliminated in order to avoid a tax increase for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

City Manager Howard Stites revealed that the budget would have to be chopped a total of $67,000 in order to maintain the $1.43 per $100 assessed valuation tax rate.

The manager said Wednesday night he "doubted" if the council would be able to cut the budget enough to avoid "some small increase" in taxes. "It can't be done," he related, "without seriously impairing some municipal services."

Even by cutting $50,000 off the budget requests, the tax rate would still jump from seven to eight cents, he said.

If the $1,229,414 budget figure were adopted, the city tax rate would jump to $1.66½ cents, or a raise of 23½ cents per $100.
This would mean an annual increase in property taxes of about $7 for homes assessed at $3000.
Budget submitted to the council Monday is $1,100,000 over the figure for the 1955-56 fiscal year, $1,109, 449.

Strike Three Items

Poring over each department request, the council managed to reduce expenditures by $2750 by striking three items.

These included elimination of a city automobile for the buyer, $750, doing away with position of half-time clerk for the personnel board, $1850, and reduction of appropriation for machinery and equipment in general government buildings from $650 to $500.

At a special study session on Wednesday night, resumption of budget talks was held over because only three of the council were present, Mayor Joseph Verducci and Paul Huff being absent.

Acting Mayor Sanford Vickers recommended that the budget session be held over until Monday night, pending a report from the finance committee, which includes Councilmen Michael De Bernardi and Huff.

Because the budget chopping process loomed an almost impossible task.

SCHOOL-SEWAGE BOARD SQUABBLE PEACE TALK SET

Father and son will be on "opposite sides" next Wednesday night when the Jefferson Elementary School district board meets with North San Mateo county Sanitation district directors to determine obligation on installing a new sewer line at Benjamin Franklin school.

Last week the school board, which numbers among its members Michael Callan, son of County Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr., a member of the sanitation board, took the sanitation district to task for asking the school to install a larger sewer line at a cost of some $7500.

Young Callan termed the request "ridiculous," while Trustee Hartley Appleton said the district was "drunk with their own authority."

Weibel Appears

This prompted the sanitation board to summon school superintendent H. Z. Weibel before them at their regular meeting Monday.
Weibel maintained that a joint meeting of the two governing bodies was the best way to reach a solution, as proposed by Director Sanford Vickers.

In explaining the sanitation district's request for a larger installation, Chairman Thomas Callan

Taxi Cab Issue Tops Monday Council Agenda

A new hearing on application of Yellow Cab Co. for permits to operate six taxis here will probably highlight Monday night's regular session of the city council.

Along with Yellow Cab Co., Westlake Taxi Co. and Northgate Transit Co., there is now a new firm in the race for the six permits voted by the council recently.

Robert Cohn, local recreation commissioner who lives at 81 Belmont, filed application with the council Wednesday night to operate six radio-dispatched cabs under the name Daly City Cab Co.

Theep Discounts Rat Infestation

A report of rat infestation in Crocker tract sewers was discounted today by Raymond Theep, county sanitarian serving this area.

Mrs. Marian Stura, 290 Roosevelt, said she reported the presence of rats in her neighborhood to Theep about three weeks ago and that "nothing has been done about it."

Theep said one dead rat was found in a nearby sewer and that he had informed Daly City of its presence. Ridding the streets of dead animals is the city's responsibility, Theep claimed. The sanitarian worker said the rat problem in the area was not serious.

Mrs. Stura alleged that many rats were seen coming out of the sewers adjacent to her home.

Thomas Drake Pleads Not Guilty To Counts Of Unethical Ads

Thomas R. Drake, 27, local used car dealer, entered a not guilty plea Tuesday in a San Francisco courtroom to five counts of false and misleading advertising.

Drake alias Jerome A. Biddle, 32 Second avenue, is the owner of Drake's auto sales at 6854 Mission street.

Charge against him is that he arranged for private individuals to place ads telling of cars for sale, when actually they did not own the autos and referred inquiries to Drake.

The dealer paid persons $40 for each car sold through their ad, according to Deputy District Attorney Hector Anninos.

Municipal Judge Leonore Underwood set trial for June 28.

Hammel Held Guilty On Federal Count

Kenneth F. Hammel was convicted in federal court Wednesday of having solicited horse racing wagers without purchasing a $50 federal wagering stamp.

Hammel, 42, of 1171 Brunswick street, Daly City, had denied before Judge Edward P. Murphy that he had accepted bets while employed as an estimator at the San Francisco Naval Shipyard.

But Judge Murphy ruled him guilty and sentenced him to one year probation. The jurist told Hammel that if he was ever found guilty of soliciting bets again, he would be sent to jail one year and fined $10,000.

Hammel was arrested at Hunter's point May 2 in a simultaneous raid by federal agents, Daly City police and district attorney's office, that resulted in the arrest of Hammel's wife, Marie, and Dino Donati, Daly City pin ball machine distributor, on charges of bookmaking and conspiracy.

Donati pleaded not guilty in Federal Judge Murphy's court Friday to charges of accepting bets without paying the 10 per cent government wagering tax.

The government alleges that he grossed $10,000 a month over a four-month period while operating a bookie business out of the Hammel residence and failed to pay the excise tax on his take.

Trial was set for July 3.

Donati's preliminary hearing on the bookmaking charge will resume Tuesday in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court.

Burglars Get $20 In Break-Ins At 5 Southgate Stores

Five Southgate avenue stores were broken into shortly after midnight on Thursday morning, but the would-be burglars escaped with only $20 for their troubles.

Thieves fled the scene when an alarm went off at Westlake Cleaners, 183 Southgate avenue, apparently the last stop-off on their route.

Before fleeing they ransacked the following places of business: Kaufman's Photo studio, 181; Stauffer System, 175; Daly City Hobby shop, 177, and Althea's Beauty salon, 171 Southgate.

The $20 was taken from a cash register at the beauty salon, where police said they found a bloody handkerchief believed to have been used by one of the burglars when he cut his hand.

Entry in all five establishments was made by breaking windows in the rear of the building.

Mayor JOSEPH VERDUCCI had his vacation at Yosemite interrupted Sunday by a most unusual turn of events.

His young son, JERRY, contracted the measles while in the scenic spot, and had to be brought home by Mrs. Verducci.

THOMAS BREWER, one of the instigators of the local concert association, is one of the few Californians who can claim a duplicate auto license plate—but he doesn't like the idea.

Apparently when the boys at San Quentin were stamping out the plates, they hit the machine twice on the same number—as a result there's a motorist driving around the Bay Area with the same license plate as Brewer's.

Proper authorities have been contacted to remedy the situation.

Army Pledges Aid On Merced Drain Quandry

Daly City's drainage quandry at the Lake Merced channel, which has filled up to within one foot of the top with 6000 yards of silt, will soon be relieved by the U. S. Army.

The drainage ditch at the south shore of Lake Merced, which lies in the City of San Francisco, carries away storm waters from Daly City's drainage system and dumps the flow into the ocean. But in past months, City Engineer Cyril Weiler reported Wednesday, heavy flow of silt has deposited in the six-foot channel up to one foot from the top and has practically clogged the drain.

Weiler revealed that the U. S.
Army has agreed to let contract to remove the dirt, providing the city will pass a resolution of cooperation and provide a spot to dispose of the earth.

The project will cost an estimated $10,000. It is made possible under federal funds made available earlier this year for damage to Nurseryman Pleads Innocent To Child Molesting Charge

Cecil La Barr, nursery worker, 40, pleaded not guilty in municipal court Tuesday to charges that he molested a 13-year-old Daly City girl.

La Barr, who lives at 363 Rhine street, was not represented by attorney. His trial was set for July 12. Meanwhile, he is free on $750 bail.

In other action Tuesday, the court:

1. Fined Paul Asty, 206-A School street, $50 and placed him on six months probation for driving 100 miles per hour in South San Francisco on May 10. Charge of reckless driving was dismissed.
2. Fined John Stubbs, Box 319 Ellis drive, Broadmoor, and Robert Kohs, 8 Flournoy, $25 each for being drunk in a public place.

of pipe while playing in the city corporation yard at Citrus and Niantic streets March 9.

Mrs. Mary Fife, 259 Willits street, seeks the damages for her son Dennis, 8, who she says was injured because the city "failed to keep the lot in a safe condition."

BEAR TRACKS LEAVES REAL "BARE" TRACKS

"Bear Tracks," a prominent Daly City hobo, left "bare tracks" Wednesday night in his wanderings from Marchbanks park to his familiar debarkation point at the local police station.

Police first heard of the hobo's predicament when the proprietor of a Junipero Serra boulevard grocery store called to state that "Bear Tracks" was there minus his pants, underwear and shoes.

Responding to the scene, officers found the hobo in the condition so stated. "Bear Tracks," formally known as Henry Mack Jr., 39, reported that someone had stolen his clothing while he was sleeping in the park.

For his appearance in municipal court Thursday morning, the hobo borrowed a pair of overalls and shoes from Police Sergeant Dean Wood. For the next ten days he will be wearing attire furnished at the county jail.

sible task, Councilman Micheal De Bernardi proposed elimination of $50,000 from the $64,500 capital improvements budget. This budget includes $2500 for general government buildings, $5500 for street department buildings, $25,000 for library site acquisition, $3000 for lease-purchase payment on library building, $4000 for library architect's fee, and $22,500 for parks department buildings and improvement.

Asks Citizens Study

DeBernardi's proposal would virtually cripple plans for a Westlake library branch, but he qualified his suggestion by asking that the capital improvement projects be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce or a citizens committee, which could formulate methods of paying for the capital outlay jobs.

Acting mayor Sanford Vickers proposed a "pay as you go" program to finance future capital improvements. "The funds just aren't there," he declared. "We've had large annexations and we haven't received the revenue we should have. We should establish a lease purchase program and set up separate funds for all these projects. If the council can't solve these problems, then I think they should go to a citizens committee."

Cop Budget Biggest

Accounting for the biggest chunk of this year's budget is the police department, with a request for $205,394.

Requests of other major departments, in order, are: water, $169, 984; fire, $129,661; water collection and disposal, $85,000; street, $79,108.

Cops To Wash Cars

Broadmoor policemen will wash cars from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. on lice department sponsors.

Cars will be washed at the po-

COPS TO CRACK DOWN ON WRONG SIDE OF STREET PARKING

Warning that police are again who park their cars on the wrong side of the street was issued today mann.

ing in the wrong direction applies to all persons whether in a residential or business district. Failure to comply with the order will result in issuance of citations, Sundermann declared.

BPOA PLEDGES AID IN FIGHT VS. SALES TAX

Broadmoor Property Owners Assn. last Thursday night went on record as opposed to the county sales tax and promised support to "prevent or overthrow" it.

The resolution, offered by James McKay, expressed "overwhelming opposition" to the tax.

It further pledged the association's support in any steps taken by the Committee Opposing Sales Tax to "prevent or overthrow the adoption of this sales tax by the county, including any initial steps toward county-wide adoption by local city action.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. Thomas Jenkins and McKay have been designated as official representatives of the board on the COST committee, which has offices in Burlingame.

REVAMP SUBDIVISION ORDINANCE?

Our neighboring city, South San Francisco, last week announced a policy that might be the answer to Daly City's revenue problem.

The South City council, after a conference with the planning commission, ruled that subdividers, in addition to being fully responsible for drainage faults, will be taxed $50 per lot on being admitted to the city, and an additional $150 when home construction starts on each lot.

Money raised from fees of this sort would go a long way to finance capital improvements made necessary by the new subdivisions.

And that is where Daly City's budget difficulties are centered—where to find funds for capital improvements.

There is usually sufficient money to finance general government operation, but pickings get slim when it comes time to pay for badly needed building projects in both the new and the old areas.

Monday night the council even considered doing away with all capital improvements for the coming year. This means realization of a Westlake library branch is another year away, as are badly needed improvements on Daly City's parks and playgrounds.

Cities budget from hand to mouth, so to speak, and Daly City is no exception. Each year the council, after due consideration, places a moratorium on projects that had originally been scheduled for that year.

Fees such as those that will be imposed by South San Francisco could easily build up sufficient revenues to take care of these capital improvements.

Recently Daly City adopted a subdivision ordinance which was a big improvement over the previous lax policy.

But it has already been proven that this ordinance is not doing the job it was intended to do—to insure the city that sufficient money would be on hand to provide municipal services for newly-annexed tracts.

The time to start considering a stiffer ordinance is now. Not after the last remaining lands are annexed to Daly City.

said, "We're asking a bigger sewer because the school is covering it with 30 feet of sand. With this much sand, nobody'll ever be able to reach that pipe in the future as the area grows, so we want the line made big enough so we won't ever have to disturb it."

D. A. Approved
Callan also argued that the district attorney had advised the school district that it could proceed with the new installation, while the state allocations board had approved expenditure of money for the project.

In agreeing to meet with school trustees next Wednesday, Callan told Weibel, "You'd better have those ninnies prepared."

During the session Monday, Weibel denied that he had used the word "tough" in describing the sanitation district's recent policy before the school board last Wednesday.

Other Action
Next Wednesday's special meeting will begin at 7 p.m., preceding the regular school board session.

In other action Monday, the sanitation board:

1. Agreed to charge Hope Lutheran church minimum annexation fee of $25, instead of $25 per lot. The board ruled that in setting fee on annexation of churches into the district, each case would be considered independently.

2. Continued discussion of Lake

Latest addition to the pink booties set is MISS GALE JEANNE, who arrived June 5 at St. Joseph's hospital and tipped the scales at eight pounds, five ounces. She was nineteen inches long. Big brother GARY, 4, is quite pleased with the new addition, as are the proud parents, GENE and JUNE GAVILLO of Lausanne.

Many months of planning and years of saving have proved worthwhile to MARIE BALDETTI of N. Parkview, who recently left by plane for a grand three-month vacation in Europe. Plans include a visit to Italy where she hopes to see many of her relatives, some sight seeing in Switzerland and then on to Paris before returning.

A pre-graduation buffet luncheon was recently given by MRS. LEWIS DONATI of W. Cavour to honor her daughter, DIANA who is soon to graduate from the Mercy High school in Burlingame. The fun was enjoyed by Richard Hillman, David Lewis, Richard Rusert, Tommy Swartzgart, Jimmie Letcavage, Raymond Marshall, Douglas Gambin, Skippy Del Sarto, Jimmie Nofziger and Denny Amundson.

Den 2 a newly formed den also joined in on this particular outing. They were accompanied by the HARRY DUNNS. The new Cub Scouts are Melvin and Harry Lee Dunn, Bobby Stone, James Parrish and Allen Slepnickoff.

After a long siege with rheumatic fever, which has kept him bedded down for the last 13 months, 12-year-old BOBBY PORCELLI of Peoria says "it's swell to be out again." We're all mighty happy to have you back in circulation again, Bobby, but let's not overdo it.

Teenagers Steal Auto, Make Try At Motel Robbery

Two incidents of teen-age crimes were reported to local police early Saturday morning. First victim was slugged over the head and robbed of his car by two young thugs, while the second report was from a local woman motel owner whose screams for help scared away two would-be robbers.

Lawrence Scott, 28, a sheet metal worker of 51 Willits street told officers that he was sitting in the New Lucky Cafe, 6286 Mission street, at 10:30 a.m. when two teenagers struck up a conversation with him.

Scott agreed to accompany them to a graduation party, and the three left in Scott's auto, police said. Upon reaching Templeton street and Crocker avenue the boys told Scott to stop the car.

Then one of the youths slugged Scott over the head, the victim told officers. The pair sped off in Scott's car but did not touch his wallet which he said contained $100. He was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for a minor head cut.

A few hours following the first incident, Mrs. Rose Guisto, co-owner of the El Camino motel, 7425 Mission street, told officers that two teenagers entered the office brandishing a gun.

"Don't get scared, lady, we won't shoot you, just give us your money," one of the pair is quoted as saying.

Mrs. Guisto backed away from the counter, ran into a rear room and began screaming for her husband who was asleep upstairs. She said she then heard the front door open and the bandits fleeing.

MUNI BUS NO. 26 IN SWAN SONG FOR DALY CITY

Municipal Bus Route No. 26, which served Daly City, sang its swan song last week.

The line was re-routed to replace part of the No. 28 line. The No. 26 follows its old route from Fifth and Mission streets to San Jose avenue and Alemany boulevard, near Daly City.

It then turns west on Alemany and proceeds to Palmetto, to Junipero Serra boulevard and to its new terminal at Garfield avenue.

It returns via Garfield, Beverly, 19th avenue, Junipero Serra, Stanley, Arch and Alemany to San Jose and its regular route.

Monday through Saturday the first coaches will leave Junipero Serra and Garfield at 5:27 a.m. and Fifth and Mission at 6:04 a.m. The bus formerly made the loop on Mission to San Jose avenue at the top of the hill in Daly City, where it had its terminal.

'Landlubber' Cubs See Bay Attractions

Sights a landlubber seldom sees were viewed with interest by members of Cub Pack 261 when the group was taken on a boat cruise around San Francisco Bay.

Eighteen Cub Scouts and half a dozen adult chaperones boarded the Harbor Queen, excursion vessel, and motored out to get a close glimpse of such famous Bay area attractions as Alcatraz Island, Hunters Point, the Yacht Club and several others. Mrs. Byassee - Kindergarten

We have a new Bozo picture-record book, thanks to our P.T.A. money. We certainly do appreciate our Mothers and Fathers coming to P.T.A.

For some time now we have watched our sweet potatoes in water and have they grown. We started with bare sweet potatoes and now they have many roots, shoots, and leaves.

Only a few more days until our party, where we will have hats and goodies. We hope our Mothers will come and see us our rhythms.

It has been a good year and we are looking forward to summer vacation and then we will be First Graders.

Mrs. Mitchell - First Grade

We have a new playground at our school. The children enjoy playing on the swings, bars, rings and the slide. We take turns and share.

We are planning a trip to the Public Library before school is out.

The children in Mrs. Fox's class are learning all about tad-poles. They have a bowl of them in the room.

Mrs. Hawkins - Fourth Grade

Our fourth grade class enjoyed an excellent film this week entitled "California Centennial." We saw many places we have visited this year: Mission Dolores, Chinatown and Golden Gate Park. We were interested also in places which we have never seen. This film summed up our years work on California. We have learned a great deal about our year's work on California.

Safe Summer Parents Duty, PTA Is Told

Parents' responsibilities in giving their children a safe and happy summer was cited by Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage when he spoke before members of James L. Snell PTA who, last week, gathered for their final meeting of the year.

Stressing prevention of children hanging around shopping areas, walking home alone following an evening movie, playing in unsupervised school yards and near construction areas, and going off alone on hikes and other expeditions, Chief Savage called on village parents to take a close interest in their children's summer activities.

Sharing the platform with the police chief, outgoing chairman of the PTA's safety committee, was Mayor Joseph Verducci who traced recreation's role in the development of a child.

"Lessons learned on the playing fields," said Mayor Verducci, become part of a child's social behavior. Among these valuable lessons, he pointed out, are "learning to take turns, getting along with team mates, learning the value of competition, learning to accept victory with humility and defeat with grace, learning to abide by rules of sport, self-confidence, leadership training, loyalty, and other important social traits."

Mayor Verducci's talk was supplemented by a recently-released color film on recreation, "They Grow So Fast," which gives an insight into the physical education program in elementary schools.

Rec Chairman Tells Snell PTA Of Sked

A report from recreation chairman Michael Orlich that the Jefferson Elementary school board had approved a summer recreation program for this area climaxed the year's closing meeting held last week by James L. Snell PTA. The program, to be held on the Garden Village school grounds, will be financed through an appropriation from the special 5-cent recreation tax funds.

Drawn up and submitted to the school board by Orlich at the request of the executive board of James L. Snell PTA, the program was unanimously endorsed by those present at the meeting. Orlich announced that program plans would be put into action immediately.

In his report to the unit, the recreation chairman also announced that additional funds had been granted by the school board to make a similar program available at Colma Elementary school for children from the Sterling Park area.

Other action taken by the PTA was to approve a change of its schedule of meetings on the second Wednesday of each month, commencing with the forthcoming September meeting. The change was made to avoid conflict with the school board meeting, according to Mrs. Irwin Cohen, unit president.

'PARIS' THEME PREVAILS FOR GRADUATION DANCE

"A Night In Paris" was the theme last week for the eighth grade graduation dance sponsored by the Hillside PTA at Colma school multi-use room.

Decor of varied paintings and murals of colorful Paris cafe scenes in the springtime carried out the festive theme.

Upon arrival at the affair, each girl student was given a corsage fashioned of a graduate doll's face, a small bottle of perfume, a gardenia, and a ribbon in the school colors.

For the young men, a gift of a ball point pen, wrapped as a diploma, was given. Red carnations were provided for the beaux' buttonholes.

Approximately 375 students danced to the music of Lyn Leonard and his five-piece orchestra.

Special guests included high and elementary school superintendents, coordinators, principals and deans of Jefferson and Westmoor High schools, the mayor and the city manager.

Parents and Auxiliary police provided assistance to help make the dance a success.

New Pisa Allows One Run In Two Weekend Wins

The well coached Kiwanis Pirates of South San Francisco could not stop the Dante's New Pisa Juniors on Saturday at Grange Memorial Field in South City. The New Pisa's started slowly, but scored in four out of their six times at bat to wind up with an 8-1 win.

Bill Ludwigen held the Kiwanis youngsters to three hits, while walking only two and striking out five. Meanwhile, Duke Jones paced the Daly City lads with three hits for three times up, and Vic Kulik lined a long double for the best hit of the day.

Once again, the Lowell Creighton boys showed well on defense, and Richy Morales made three sparkling assists, and closed the game with a running catch of Parenti's tricky fly ball. Jones and Mike Rovai each threw three men out, and Barry Krohn covered at first for ten put outs.

Battling stifling heat at San Carlos Sunday, the New Pisa's had a "track meet" against the St. Charles Juniors there, winning 20-0. Morales had to leave the game with heat prostration in the third inning, but the lads fattened up their batting averages with 19 safeties.

Dante's meet St. Cecilia's, who beat them for their only defeat, on Saturday, and will play the Travelers at Marchbanks Field at 11:30 a.m. Sunday.

Gino's Homers Rap Eagles In Rec Softball

The greatly improved Gino's Club softballers, assisted by a trio of consecutive home runs, ripped a valiant but outgunned Eagles nine, 15-4, in a Recreation league contest last Monday evening.

With one away in the initial frame Bob Valverde, talented "Gino's Club" shortstop, walloped Eagle hurler Jack Miller's first offering to deep left center field for a round trip. Former professional ball player John Matzek took just two pitches and blasted one of the longest four baggers ever witnessed since the advent of the League. Player manager Dave Cafferetta, who has belted a homer in every contest in which he has appeared this season followed Matzek to the plate and promptly rifled a liner to right center field for the full tour of the bags. When the beleaguered Eagle moundsman finally retired the side, Gino's had a commanding four run lead and held the edge throughout.

On Tuesday at Marchbanks the inexperienced Shannon Hardware team scored the biggest upset of the season by dumping the highly favored Daly City Drug nine, 13-8, in a sizzling contest.

In the fifth inning the Shannon nine erupted for six runs on doubles by Henry Morgan and Tom Cloutier and four free passes issued by Drugs pitcher Bill Luciani to clinch the win.

2100 Tyro Swimmers In Program At Jeff Hi Pool

It's hard to visualize 2100 youngsters splashing around in one swimming pool, but that's practically what's happening now at Jefferson High school pool.

The annual two-month swimming instruction program sponsored by the high school in conjunction with the Red Cross, got underway this week with 2100 youngsters enrolled.

Directed by Michael Orlich, high school athletic director, the program is made up of classes of 40 each which take instruction from trained personnel in half-hour periods.

Youngsters from 6 to 14 years of age are entered in the program. The only requirement is that a child be at least 48 inches tall.

In past years, most of the children entered in the program have achieved their beginner's certificate and many have gone on to attain intermediate and even advanced swimmer's badges.

Trained instructors include Arlene Pool, Sharon Boyle Gules, Norm Cady, Nancy Brown and Annette Insell.

The program will last through August 24.

Adult swimming classes are held on Wednesday nights from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., but the current session is full, according to Orlich.
